Wisconsin law allows the Unit Owners to amend the condominium declaration, bylaws and other condominium documents if the required votes are obtained. Some of these changes may alter a Unit Owner's legal rights and responsibilities with regard to the condominium unit, including some of the information included in this Executive Summary. Unit Owners and prospective purchasers should review the amendment requirements in the declaration, bylaws, rules and regulations, or other condominium documents.

 For condominium document references regarding condominium document amendment procedures and requirements, see Condo Docs

This Executive Summary was prepared on the date stated on page one by David A Greco, President (print name and title or position).

 Instructions for Completing the Executive Summary. The Executive Summary is one of the condominium disclosure documents that must be furnished to a prospective purchaser of a residential condominium unit. The Executive Summary addresses the topics set forth in Wis. Stat. § 703.33(1)(h) in clear, plain language or by indicating the location within the disclosure materials where the information may be found. The Executive Summary must state the date on which it is prepared or revised. It shall be revised whenever a change in the condominium materials necessitates a corresponding revision to the Executive Summary. The preparer of the Executive Summary should consult an attorney with any questions concerning preparation of the Executive Summary.

 Executive Summary Legal Requirements. Per Wis. Stat. § 703.33(1m), the declarant (developer) or the association is responsible for preparing the Executive Summary and revising it whenever a change is made in the disclosure materials that necessitates a corresponding revision to the Executive Summary. An Executive Summary must appear in the condominium disclosure materials directly following the index [Wis. Stat. § 703.33(2)], and must be attached as an addendum to the real estate condition report that a seller gives to a prospective purchaser, generally before the prospective purchaser writes an offer to purchase [Wis. Stat. § 709.02]. An Executive Summary may not be required as part of the disclosure materials for a "small condominium" (up to twelve residential units), depending upon the elections made in the declaration [Wis. Stat. § 703.365 (1) & (8)].

CAUTION: NEITHER REAL ESTATE LICENSEES NOR UNIT OWNERS SHOULD COMPLETE THIS FORM!
